Office Memorandum • UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT

TO : Chief, Security Research Staff - FILE DATE: 30 June 1953

FROM : Chief, Technical Branch

SUBJECT: [redacted] C A/B, E, 50, 1

1. [redacted] is one of the outstanding pharmacologist in the United States today. He has been widely honored for his work in penicillin and is [redacted] as far as this Office has been able to ascertain, is a [redacted] citizen although he has resided in the United States for a great number of years. C

2. Since [redacted] politics are unknown and his citizenship apparently is [redacted] it has been determined that too great a security risk would be involved in contacting him in regard to the ARTICHOKE work.

[redacted] A

[redacted]